

RITCH

M U E L L E R

Legacy Interconnection Contracts: extension for full capacity operation and validity renewal

Through a resolution, the Energy Regulatory Commission defines the justified causes for extending the commercial operation of the full capacity stated in legacy interconnection contracts, as well as the criteria for determining its duration.

Amendments to the terms for legal separation of the Federal Electricity Commission

In order to promote the efficiency of power plants and reduce operating costs, the Ministry of Energy amended the terms for the strict legal separation of the Federal Electricity Commission.

Electricity power purchase: determination of penalties for non-compliance

In order to provide legal certainty in the imposition of sanctions provided for in the Electric Industry Law for non-compliance in power purchases, the Energy Regulatory Commission specifies the criteria for their determination.

Provisions to operate with innovative business models

The Ministry of Finance and Public Credit issued additional conditions for companies other than financial technology institutions to obtain temporary authorization to operate through innovative models.

New regulation on money laundering and terrorist financing for financial entities

As a means to address recommendations made to Mexico by the Financial Action Task Force to prevent and counteract these crimes, the Ministry of Finance and Public Credit issued several resolutions amending the regulatory framework of financial institutions.

Regulatory framework for virtual asset platforms

The Bank of Mexico issued new provisions for credit institutions and financial technology institutions to carry out transactions with virtual assets.

Authorization to render services related to clearing houses through innovative business models

New rules provide the conditions that financial institutions must comply with in order to obtain authorizations to carry out routing, clearing and settlement transactions via innovative business models.

RITCH
M U E L L E R

Torre Virreyes, Av. Pedregal No. 24 piso 10
Molino del Rey, 11040 Ciudad de México
t. 55 9178 7000

contacto@ritch.com.mx / www.ritch.com.mx